HANDOUT D:

See, Think, Wonder

HANDOUTS

SEE

What is it called?

What does it do?

What is it made of?

Does it look old or new?

Is it chipped or worn or missing any pieces?

Was this object meant to be looked at or used?

Does it have any moving parts?

How does it work?

Does it make a noise? What would it sound like?

What does it smell like? Something familiar or strange?

THINK

How old do you think it is?

Was it easy to buy? Cheap or expensive? Could you find, buy or see this all over the place or is it a rare thing?

Where would it be used? at home or at work/

Would it be used on a special occasion or every day?

Do you know of any objects that look the same as this?

What object today does the same or similar job?

How is it the same as this object? How is it different?

WONDER

What questions do you have about object?

What can it tell us about life in the past?

Would owning or using this object make a difference to the life of a child your age, their mother, someone with more money than your family or much less money, people in another country?

Would life be easier or harder if we used or owned this object?

How could this object be used today?

Would using this object be better for the environment than the modern day object?

Queanbeyan Characters

HANDOUTS

Annie Mercy Fallick

Annie is a newspaper editor, owner and bookseller. This career is very unusual for a woman during this time. Her father is John Gale, known for promoting Queanbeyan as the site for the nation's capital city and editor of The Queanbeyan Age. Annie is the one who invites people to The Jubilee Dinner.

John Feagan

John is an Irish protestant who arrived with his family in NSW about 1840 and made a fortune on the goldfields. Other people think of him as shabby and a bit rude. In 1860 he bought and paid for a big property called The Googongs in gold.

Bobby Evans

Robert "Bobby" Evans is Queanbeyan's first cordial manufacturer. His nickname is "Ginger-beer Bobby". Bobby is married to Mary.

Julia Donohue

Julie is married to Patrick and they have seven children. The family came to Australia from Ireland and are very poor.

Bobby Deumonga (Hamilton)

Star wicket keeper and one of three Aboriginal players in the Ginninderra cricket team often against the Queanbeyan side. At one match some players from another team refused to play against them. Bobby was also an excellent horse rider.
